

Virtual Library Events 5.6.2020

Fairfax County Public Library is offering virtual programs! Go to the library's event calendar and click on "View Events By..." and select "Digital Programs." Some programs are live or recorded and may require registration. See a listing of our virtual events by age: preschoolers, school-age children, teens, and adults.

Make sure to follow our Facebook page and subscribe to our YouTube channel.

Virtual Preschool Programs:

Bouncing Babies Storytime

Join Ms. Melissa for a lap sit program with songs & rhymes for children ages 0-18 months. An invitation to join this online class will be sent to participants after they register. Wednesday, May 27, 11 a.m. Register.

Early Literacy in Action: Giraffes Can't Dance

Join us at Fairfax County Public Library Facebook page on Friday, May 29 at 10 a.m. for a storytime that will include an activity preschoolers can make using materials found in your home.

Online Storytimes

Tune in to the Fairfax County Public Library Facebook page at 10 a.m. every weekday for premieres of new Online Storytime videos from FCPL's Early Literacy Services staff. Watch all the storytime videos and find the rhyme, song and fingerplay instructions that go with them in the Storytime playlist on the library's YouTube channel.

School-Age and Teen Programs:

Meet Your Teen Services Staff

Just because our doors are closed doesn't mean you can't get to know your FCPL Teen Services staff. On Tuesday, May 12 we'll share tidbits about ourselves, talk books and pop culture, and just generally have a nerdy fun time. YouTube video premieres on Tuesday, May 12. (Teens)

Books and Bubble Tea

Are you missing your favorite bubble tea shop AND looking for book recommendations for Own Voices reads during Asian/Pacific American Heritage Month? We've got you covered. Learn how to make your own bubble tea from home and talk shop (and by shop we mean books). YouTube video premieres on Tuesday, May 19. (Teens)

Cooking Club: Chicken & Lettuce Wraps

Join us as we make no-cook chicken lettuce wraps that children will love! This Asian inspired recipe is an easy way to introduce basic kitchen gadgets and ingredients to your budding chef. YouTube video premieres on Thursday, May 21. (School-age)

Adult Programs:

Qigong and Mindfulness Meditation

Nevin Turk combines Qigong and Meditation into a flowing sequence to help recharge the body and calm the mind. An invitation to join this class will be emailed 1-2 days prior to the start time.

Monday, May 11, 1 p.m. Register.

Virtual Chair Yoga

Gentle and mindful yoga taught by an experienced instructor. An invitation to join this class will be emailed 1-2 days prior to the start time. Tuesday, May 12, 10:15 a.m. Register.

Virtual Writers' Group Meeting

Writers share work for mutual tips. An invitation to join this meeting will be emailed on May 11.

Tuesday, May 12, 7 p.m. Register.

Meet Virtually Author Rebecca Roberts

Join Rebecca Roberts, author of Suffragists in Washington, D.C., as she discusses her book and how in 1913, suffragists planned a massive march down Pennsylvania Avenue to coincide with the inauguration of Woodrow Wilson. An invitation to join this presentation will be emailed on May 12.

Wednesday, May 13, 7 p.m. Register.

Online Activities:

Keep busy with these library challenges! When you have completed all the challenges for your age group, send an email and a picture of yourself doing one of the activities to LIBLibraryEvents@fairfaxcounty.gov. Include your age group in the email.

See library scavenger hunts and other activities for preschoolers, school-age, teens, and adults.
